Universita Cattolica Del Sacro Cuore

Cattolica, the Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore (UCSC) is the largest private university in Italy and in Europe. It is a prestigious comprehensive research and teaching university, recently ranked number 11 across Italy's 90 universities. With over 42,000 students and 2,000 faculty and staff, Cattolica offers some of the most exciting and challenging academic programs and disciplines, in areas of medicine and health sciences, economics, business, international relations, political science, psychology and communications.

A modern university formed originally in 1921, Cattolica's heart is located in a stunningly beautiful medieval building in downtown Milan. Cattolica offers the ideal study environment for a summer or semester abroad program taught in English or Italian, or a prestigious degree taught in Italian and in some cases in English. Cattolica takes great pride in supporting its international students, through accommodation, and specialist advising and health services that are the envy of universities across Italy and Europe.

Housing:

The city of Milan Offers a wide range of housing options. UCSC may have some rooms available on campus but these are very limited and cannot be guaranteed. International students attending UCSC, may select the housing option through Milano International Living Service (MIL) located in UCSC International building at VIA Carducci, 28/30. The apartments provided through MIL Service include wireless internet connections, utilities (water and electricity), cleaning service, basic cable television, and are fully furnished including extra amenities such as DVD player, television set and kitchenware.

For more information visit the MIL Service website at www.milservice.com

Life in Milan:

Milan is an exciting city to live in. Even though it is expensive and maybe different in relation to other European cities, Milan is a dynamic and very progressive city in many ways. It is not a touristy place like Rome, but actually that makes it nicer. Many foreigners live in Milan and so it provides a mixed culture, but it does not lose anything of its own beautiful and historic culture. Milan is especially nice in winter because not many people come to or stay in the city. Fashion weeks, feast days, and whole nights dedicated to whooping it up: Milan's calendar is not short of entertaining and enriching events.
